March 5, 2025

The National Museum of History of Moldova has opened a photography exhibition ‘Phenomenon of Strength’, marking three years since the launch of Russia’s full-scale invasion of Ukraine.

The opening event, held on 4 March, was organised by the Delegation of the European Union to the Republic of Moldova, in collaboration with the National Museum of History of Moldova and the National Congress of Ukrainians in Moldova.

Curated by the Office of the Ombudsman of Ukraine, the exhibition highlights the stories of children returned home from deportation and civilians and prisoners of war who were held captive by the Russian Federation.

“This exhibition serves as a powerful reminder that human resistance is stronger than any oppression,” the EU Ambassador to the Republic of Moldova, Jānis Mažeiks, said at the opening event. “It is a testament to the unwavering spirit of the Ukrainian people. For three years, they have faced unimaginable hardships, yet their courage and determination have never faltered. The European Union stands with Ukraine, because this is not just their fight – it is a fight for freedom, justice, and the values we all share.”

The exhibition will remain open to the public until 28 March 2025.
